LOCAL NEWS.

For this section local thunder storms, followed by fair weather, nearly stationary temperature, southerly winds.

YESTERDAY'S STORMS.—The heat of the last two or three days has been excessive, the mercury in the thermometers running up in the nineties. Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning, about the time the fire alarm was sounded, a cooling breeze set in from the northeast, which grew brisk and proved refreshing. By daybreak the heavens were cloudy, with the wind from the same quarter, and it was supposed that a general rain and lower temperature were imminent. The sunrise, however, proved incorrect, as by nine o'clock the sun had cleared the heavens of clouds and laid bare the blue vault, while the thermometer began marking increasing heat, and by noon the rays of the sun were depressing to everything save salamanders, almost clearing the streets of people. The wind in the meantime had veered to the south, and though strong, was not of a cooling nature, and during the lulls in the laws the perspiration was driven from man and beast alike. In the afternoon, about five o'clock, after two hours' thundering in the west and northwest, a driving rain storm set in, accompanied by some thunder and lightning. A sail boat containing men and boys was capsized by the squall on the Maryland flats. The occupants all reached the shore with no other damage save a thorough soaking. About eight o'clock another storm set in, lasting about half an hour, during which the electrical display was on a large scale. The old court house, on Columbia street, was struck by the electric fluid and slightly damaged. This fact is against the prevalent tradition that lightning never strikes twice in the same place, as the cupola on this building was damaged by lightning some years ago. The lightning was vivid and incessant and continued to flash for hours after the storm had passed over the city. The lightning caused considerable alarm to the residents in the Third ward living in the vicinity of the old court house, which was struck by the electric fluid. During the storm Mrs. Leonard Brown, who was sitting at the door of her house in Fairfax county about four miles from this city, was injured by being struck by the door which was blown from its fastenings. The wind during the storm was quite severe in Fairfax county, west of this city, and a number of trees were blown down. The weather has been sultry again to-day with occasional showers.

FIRE.—Shortly after one o'clock yesterday morning smoke was seen issuing from the second story of the shoe store of Mr. John A. Marshall, on the south side of King street, between Royal and Pitt. An alarm was sounded, and officer Bettice, who was the first to arrive on the ground, broke in the door and entered the building. Proceeding up stairs, he found the entire upper story enveloped in flames. The fire department lost no time in repairing to the scene and was soon at work. They succeeded in confining the fire to the place of its origin, though the stock in the store was either destroyed or so damaged as to render it worthless. The upper story of the building was burned out. Mr. D. Bendheim's store on the west was slightly damaged as was also a part of his stock from water, and the back building of Mr. J. L. Grigg's store on the east was somewhat damaged. Several theories have been advanced in attempted explanations of the origin of the fire, though none seem as probable as the one entertained by a majority that the conflagration was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Bendheim, who was in his yard shortly before the fire broke out, is firmly convinced that he heard some one in the second story of the burned building, and also that he heard a noise similar to that made by the moving of a box across the floor. Some think the fire was caused by a lighted cigar stump which a customer may have left in the store before it was closed; the clothing department being on the second floor. Mr. Marshall's stock was insured for $40,000 in companies for which Messrs. Wise & Co. are the Alexandria agents, and the house for $1,400 and the shelving and fixtures for $1,000 in companies represented by Mr. A. A. Warfield. The store occupied by Mr. Bendheim belongs to Mrs. Klipstein, and is insured, as is the stock contained therein. Mr. Grigg's store was also insured. Another alarm was sounded soon after this fire was extinguished, which proved to be false.

A TERRIBLE PLUNGE.—About one o'clock yesterday afternoon Misses Lulu and Jessie Moon, sisters of Mr. John Moon, who recently purchased Mr. Thomas F. Burroughs' farm, near Gum Spring, Fairfax county, were returning from the Friends' meeting house, in the Woodlawn neighborhood to their home, when the horse attached to their buggy became unmanageable, and while on the way down a steep grade while on the way down a steep grade started to run away. In a few seconds a bridge spanning a stream was reached at which the buggy upset, precipitating the occupants into the water, below. Miss Jessie escaped with a few bruises, but her sister, Miss Lulu, was not so fortunate, but plunged head first a distance of about ten feet into the water. The present stock of clothing, furnishing goods and boots and shoes in Mr. Joseph Brager's store, No. 12 King street, is offered for sale during the next thirty days at about half value. The price list will be found in the advertisement elsewhere.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.—The present stock of clothing, furnishing goods and boots and shoes in Mr. Joseph Brager's store, No. 12 King street, is offered for sale during the next thirty days at about half value. The price list will be found in the advertisement elsewhere.

PERSONAL.—Mr. C. T. Dabney, formerly superintendent of transportation of the Virginia Midland railroad, who resigned and left this city last week to accept a position under General Superintendent W. M. S. Dunn, of the C. & O. road, has been appointed superintendent of the Newport News division of the Newport News and Chesapeake Valley Company, vice Mr. J. W. Hopkins, resigned.

Rev. Dr. Minniegerode, of Richmond, was in the city yesterday and preached at St. Paul's Church in the morning and at Grace Church at night.

Among the strangers in the city yesterday was Mr. C. B. Dana, of Natchez, Miss., son of the late Rev. C. B. Dana, formerly rector of Christ Church.

Miss Bertha Rosenthal and brother have left the city on a prolonged visit to Oakland, Md.

Miss Eliza Miller, of this city, sailed from New York on Saturday for London, where she will meet Mrs. Evelyn C. Lewis and with her visit the principal points of interest in England, Scotland and Ireland.

Mr. Charles E. Lewis, of Vienna, Fairfax county, and Miss Cora F. Watson, a native of Concord, N. H., were married in Washington on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green, of Zanesville, O., who have been visiting friends in this city, left here Saturday morning for the Catskill mountains, where they will spend the summer.

Rev. William McGuire is seriously ill in Washington.

Mr. George E. Ward, of Washington, and Miss Bertha Eisenbaum, of this city, were married to-day by Rev. G. H. Norton at the rectory of St. Paul's Church.

THE REGATTA.—President Huffy, of the Old Dominion Boat Club, says the prospects of a successful regatta on July 4th are very encouraging. The arrangements are nearly completed. There will be junior and senior singles, junior and senior fours, an eight-oared shell, and two gig races. One gig race will be open for all, the other only to the crews in the Virginia State Rowing Association. The course will be from below Jones' Point to the finish in front of the boat house, one mile and a half straight away. In all probability it will be smooth, as the water is quiet four nights out of five. At the close of the regatta, which begins at 2:30 p. m., the visiting crews will be taken to Marshall Hall as the guests of the Alexandria boys, where the prizes will be awarded. They will consist of gold medals. No pennants will be given. Two tugs have been engaged for the press, officials, &c. Five crews, including the Virginians of Richmond, and the Petersburgs, have already entered the State gig race. The Old Dominion club will also have a crew entered.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and warm, with four lodgers at the station house. The mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Eliza Williams, colored, arrested by officer Franks on suspicion of setting fire to the house of Isaac Payne, colored, on Saturday morning last, was dismissed.

Harry Baker, colored, arrested by officer Franks for stealing a hat from Sidney Foster, also colored, was fined $1.

Wm. Stanton, colored, arrested by officer Lawler for an assault on George Young, also colored, was fined $3.

Henry Scheler, a tramp, arrested by special officer Crump for trespassing on the property of the V. M. Railway Company, was released.

The mayor ordered a dog to be killed which had bitten a colored boy.

A colored boy charged with an assault on another boy, and whose case was continued from Saturday, was discharged.

Jerry Willis, colored, charged with assaulting Annie Willis, was fined $2.

NOT THE MAN.—The Strasburg News says: "Our town was somewhat excited last Saturday by the appearance of a man said to answer precisely to the description of Billy Williams, the ruffian who killed Policeman Arnold in Alexandria some weeks ago. He was seen by several different parties, and all remarked the resemblance. A reward of $700 has been offered for the capture and conviction of Williams, and this was almost sufficient incentive for a number of warm-blooded citizens to organize pursuit and capture the supposed murderer. But an intimation, carelessly dropped by some one who had seen the man, to the effect that he carried two dangerous-looking revolvers in his belt, cooled their ardor, and was sufficient to convince them that he was not the man they were looking for. A man said to resemble Billy Williams was seen in Rappahannock county only a day or two previous, but it is scarcely likely that either was the man in question."

SEMINARY EXERCISES.—The commencement exercises of the Theological Seminary, near this city, will take place as follows:

Wednesday, June 22, 11:30 a. m., alumni meeting; 2 p. m., alumni dinner; 8 p. m., missionary sermon in the chapel by Rev. R. A. Goodwin; collection for benefit of the missionary society.

Thursday, June 23, 11 a. m., essays by senior class; 2 p. m., luncheon; 3:30 p. m., delivery of diplomas by the Bishop of the diocese.

Friday, June 24, 11 a. m., ordination. Omnibuses will leave this city for the Seminary Wednesday and Thursday at 10 a. m. and 11:30 a. m., returning in the evening.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—The funeral of the late Alfred Hamilton, an old and respected colored citizen, who died on Saturday, took place this afternoon. The deceased was a member of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, for about sixty years, and was a local preacher for many years. He was lately a trusted employee in the First National Bank, and held many responsible positions among his own people. He was about 90 years old.

SUIT.—The Circuit Court of Danville is now engaged in hearing the evidence in the suit of E. K. Martin's administrator against the Richmond and Danville railroad, growing out of the killing of young Martin by the Bannister trestle accident on the Midland road several months ago. The evidence is not all in yet, and several days will be taken up with the case.

NEW WHEAT.—The first new wheat of the season was offered by Messrs. J. T. & J. G. Beckham on 'Change this morning—nine days earlier than last year. The condition of the wheat was good enough, but it contained a good deal of garlic, which being green and heavy is hard to separate from the wheat. The wheat came from Currioman.

PROPERTY SALE.—Messrs. Green & Wise, for Mr. W. D. Davidge, of Washington, have sold to Capt. Samuel English the house and lot on the northeast corner of Washington and Oronoco streets, formerly the residence of Mrs. Lucy Turner, for $3,000.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.—The present stock of clothing, furnishing goods and boots and shoes in Mr. Joseph Brager's store, No. 12 King street, is offered for sale during the next thirty days at about half value. The price list will be found in the advertisement elsewhere.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To-morrow will be the longest day of the year.

One of the beautiful peacocks recently presented to Supt. Dodge, of Mt. Vernon, has escaped.

Mrs. W. H. Newman, who recently moved from New York to Clifton, Fairfax county, died last night.

The employees of the Portner brewery spent the day on a picnic to Kerby's Spring, in Fairfax county, yesterday.

The old Sun engine, which was last week sold to parties in New York, was to-day shipped by steamer to that city.

Two large freight locomotives, built by the Cooke locomotive works of New Jersey for the Inter-Colonial Mexican railroad, passed through this city on Saturday.

John A. Seaton, jr., the big colored Cerebus of the Equitable Building, is a builder and has directed the erection of a very tasty cottage on a Virginia plantation owned by him.—New York World.

Mrs. Mary Power, widow of the late Thos. F. Power, and mother of Messrs. F. J. Martin, and V. W. Power, of this city, died at her home on upper Prince street, yesterday, after a long illness, in the 71st year of her age.

We acknowledge the receipt of an appropriately designed and beautifully engraved card of invitation to the 54th annual commencement of St. John's Academy, which takes place at 4 p. m. next Friday, at the Opera House.

A number of ladies of this city left here yesterday for Lexington to attend the graduating ball to be given to-night at the Virginia Military Institute. Messrs. Leigh Reid and W. B. Corse, of this city, are among the graduates.

The police authorities were yesterday notified that a man answering to the description of Billy Williams, the supposed murderer of Officer Arnold, had been arrested at Elkon, Md., but are of the opinion that the man is not the one wanted.

A gentleman, whose name is not given, it is understood, has recently purchased and will present to the Regents of Mt. Vernon, upwards of thirty acres of land adjoining that estate on the north, the object being to prevent its purchase by parties who might put it to uses objectionable to the Regents and detrimental to Mt. Vernon.

The regatta of the Annapolis Boat Club was given Saturday evening off the boat house, Washington. The race of a mile and one-half for the four-oared shell championship gold medal of the club was participated in by the crews of the Sappho, Undine and Sabina, and was won by the Sappho. The members of the winning crew are R. C. Ballantyne, bow; J. J. McCloskey, No. 2; J. B. Adams, No. 3; O. G. Eckstein, stroke. The results of the regatta will probably determine the crew which the Annapolians will send to the regatta of this city.

Mr. G. E. Price will have some fine trout, rock and shad for sale in the market to-morrow.

Charles Ball, colored, while handling ice at Messrs. Reed & Co's. wharf to-day had one of his fingers almost cut off by an ice hook.

Mr. W. W. McCaffrey, of Roanoke, is visiting friends in this city.

If you have catarrh, use the surest remedy—Dr. Sage's.
